

Please do not allow the use of cell phones in the air, it compromises the safety of passengers and fellow crew members. Cell phone use would create a way for potential terrorist or other dangers to be more calculating and precise by means of communication and coordination in carrying out such acts. If you want to help, make inflight telephones which are already installed on board most planes more effective.